Kentucky Historical Society/Kentucky Oral History Commission Use and Quotation Policy

Authorization must be granted by the Kentucky Historical Society (which includes the Kentucky Oral History Commission) to use or publish by any means any material to which the Society holds copyright, including original materials and copies that are housed in locations other than the Society itself. These materials include but are not limited to: paper manuscript collections, photographs, audio and video recordings in any format, digital materials and digital copies of other materials. To obtain authorization for use of these materials, users will submit a completed Use Agreement form to the Kentucky Historical Society Special Collections & Archives.

Fees for all uses, excepting non-profit or other use with the intent to enhance understanding of or appreciation for Kentucky's heritage, will be assessed on a case-by-case basis and added to the cost of reproduction. Users may not alter, distort, or change in any way the text, image, audio or video recording or digital object to be used, unless otherwise authorized to do so by the Society.

Users are responsible for obtaining permission to publish by any means any material held at the Society but to which the Society does not hold copyright. The Kentucky Historical Society is not responsible for any copyright infringement.

Users will not quote or otherwise reproduce (in print, electronically, or otherwise) in part or in whole any material to which the Society holds copyright without citing the “Kentucky Historical Society” and without giving explicit written acknowledgement of the collection from which it was obtained, as designated by the Society. Users will present to the Kentucky Historical Society Special Collections & Archives one (1) copy of any publication using materials held by the Society or will provide any other proof of appropriate acknowledgment and citation as the Society will designate.

Only material that will not be physically damaged by the process of duplication will be copied. The Society reserves the right to withhold permission for the reproduction of any material involving unusual difficulty or great risk to the original.

Direct or indirect use of oral history interviews in the body of, or in preparation for any published document shall be acknowledged wherever such acknowledgements are recorded in the text of the publication. The acknowledgement shall include the following phrase:
